

ATLANTIC LANGUAGE GALWAY

Atlantic Language was established in Galway in 1993 and is recognised by the Irish Department of Education for teaching English as a foreign language. Since then it has developed a reputation for its friendly and personal atmosphere, its internationally mixed classes, together with its attention to high academic standards of English teaching.

Atlantic Language is located in the heart of Galway, beside the bus and train stations and the Tourist Office. It is a purpose built and architecturally designed school with many facilities for students.

FACILITIES

- 24 modern classrooms
- Free access to internet services is available in the school with 17 fixed points and a WiFi service for notebook and laptop users
- Study room facilities are available where students may continue their own study in the comfort of the school
- Roof terrace with views of Galway Bay and the city
- Canteen/café services
- Library for reading material and study texts

COURSES

Whether you need to learn and improve your English for your job, for further studies or just as part of a language holiday we can offer many different courses to suit you, all year round.

Part-time courses are only one part of our range of English courses.

For full details of all the choices we offer please contact us at info@atlanticlanguage.com.

TEACHERS

All of our teachers at Atlantic Language are university graduates and are qualified to teach English as a foreign language.

The majority of Atlantic Language staff have been teaching for many years and have taught abroad.

They bring a wide range of both academic and life experiences to their teaching.
